

Genevieve Alexander
Assistant Vice President

Genevieve Alexander is the Assistant Vice President at NAS Insurance Services, Inc. She graduated from the University of Southern California with her B.A. in Business Administration and Journalism and has underwritten various products spanning from financial services to professional liability.

Specializing in healthcare, Genevieve currently oversees the underwriting and product development of NAS' billing errors and omissions and cyber liability products called MEDEFENSE™ Plus and e-MD, as well as abuse and molestation and sexual misconduct products.