

The health law solution.

MICHELLE E. CALLOWAY

4701 Cox Road, Suite 400

Richmond, VA 23060

o 804.967.9604

f 804.967.9888

mcalloway@hdjn.com

MICHELLE CALLOWAY is a director and a healthcare attorney in HDJN's corporate, regulatory affairs, reimbursement and long term/post-acute care practice groups. Ms. Calloway's practice focuses on corporate and regulatory compliance, risk management and administrative law. She advises all types of healthcare providers from individual practitioners to large hospital systems on a broad range of federal and state regulatory compliance matters including state licensure and federal certification requirements, Medicare Conditions of Participation, fraud and abuse laws, privacy laws, and federal health care program billing and reimbursement.

Ms. Calloway is certified in Healthcare Compliance and Privacy through the Compliance Certification Board and is a member of the Health Care Compliance Association. She also serves as an Officer and Board member of the Virginia State Bar, Health Law Section.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Calloway clerked for the Richmond City Circuit Court, where she assisted the Honorable T. J. Markow, Melvin R. Hughes and Randall G. Johnson.

Ms. Calloway received her J.D. from the College of William & Mary, Marshall-Wythe School of Law and her B.S. from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, magna cum laude.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Corporate Compliance
- Regulatory Compliance
- Risk Management
- Privacy (HIPAA/HITECH)
- Reimbursement
- Licensure and Certification
- Long Term/Post-Acute Care

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

B.A., Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
J.D., Marshall-Wythe School of Law, College of William & Mary

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE

Virginia

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Virginia State Bar (Health Law Section, Secretary and Board Member)
American Health Lawyers Association
American Bar Association (Health Law Section; Young Lawyers Division)
Virginia Bar Association
Health Care Compliance Association